MOCK EXAMINATION 1
ENGLISH

Examination Preparation

A1
To the readers of this booklet,

telc – language tests are the right choice for you
• if you would like to have a recognized appraisal of your language proficiency, or
• if you are an instructor who would like to prepare your students for a new challenge.

What is telc?
telc gGmbH is a not-for-profit subsidiary of the German Adult Education Association (Deutscher Volkshochschul-Verband e.V.). It is part of a long tradition of formal and organizational promotion of multilingualism in Europe. Our specific contribution began in 1968 with the VHS Certificate in English (Volkshochschul-Zertifikat Englisch), the first standardised foreign language test in the history of the Federal Republic of Germany. Since then telc gGmbH has greatly influenced standardized language test development in Europe. Today telc – language tests offer approximately 60 general and work-oriented language tests, in ten languages, all based on the levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Our examinations can be taken worldwide in more than 20 countries through our telc partners. You can find the examination centre nearest you on our website www.telc.net.

What is the value of a telc Certificate?
The value of a language certificate is determined by the high standards that are applied during the development, implementation and evaluation of the language test. All telc examinations are based on the action-orientated approach central to the CEFR and are designed to test the skills of reading, listening, writing and speaking. These examinations are standardised and are developed according to stringent scientifically recognised methods of test development. telc gGmbH is a full member of ALTE (Association of Language Testers in Europe, www.alte.org), an organization of internationally recognised test providers. Many public and private educational institutions – in Germany and throughout the world – utilize telc Certificates as a method of qualification. Additionally, many employers use them when choosing personnel. Every telc Certificate includes a detailed and comprehensive description of the foreign language competences achieved.

Why is it necessary to have mock examinations?
An essential characteristic of standardised language tests is that the participants know what is expected of them during the test. The mock examination informs the test taker about the aims, tasks and assessment criteria of the test, as well as the procedures involved in the exam implementation. telc Mock Examinations are available as free downloads at www.telc.net where you can also find additional practice materials and other useful information.

How can you find out more?
We can help you to find the test that best fits your needs. Please write to us (info@telc.net) if you have any questions or suggestions for improvement. We would be pleased to hear from you and to have the opportunity to assist you further.

Dear Mary and Brian,

Are you doing 1 on the 28th? If not, 2 to come and have a 3 with us, say at half 4 seven? There is no special reason – we just think that sometimes eating is more fun with 5 friends at the table. We hope you can come.

Love,

Dear friends,

Thanks very much for your invitation to have dinner with you 6 the 28th. I'm afraid we can't come because Mary and I 7 tickets for the theatre that evening. It's a 8 because we would really like to see you again and we know how good your cooking is. Perhaps we can find 9 date to meet. It's Mary's 40th birthday at the end of next month. We are having a party and 10 to see you here if you have time.

Bye for now,
Situation:
You arrive at a hotel. The lady at reception speaks to you.

The hotel is full and there is no room for you.

Situation:
The phone rings. It's your friend John.

John wants to drive your car this afternoon.

Situation:
You are at the airport. You are waiting for an Air France flight to Paris.

You can now go to the plane.

Situation:
You want to go for a long walk tomorrow and hear the weather report on the radio.

You can hope for fine weather for your walk tomorrow.
Listening Comprehension, Part B

First read the question. Then listen to the recording. Mark the correct answer, a or b, on the answer sheet. You will hear the text two times.

   b  550

19 Sorry, how do you spell your name?
   It’s … – spelt ________.
   a  W H I T E
   b  W H Y T E
Situational Responses, Part A
First look at sentences a–d.
Then listen to the recording.
You will hear three statements or questions.
Mark the best answer for each statement or question a, b, c, or d, on the answer sheet.
You will hear each statement or question two times.

20  ____________________________  a  Nothing. I'm okay, thanks.
21  ____________________________  b  I don't mind.
22  ____________________________  c  Yes, can I help you?

Situational Responses, Part B
First look at sentences e–i.
Then listen to the recording.
You will hear four statements or questions.
Mark the best answer for each statement or question e, f, g, h, or i, on the answer sheet.
You will hear each statement or question two times.

23  ____________________________  e  Sorry, it's not allowed.
24  ____________________________  f  Nice to meet you.
25  ____________________________  g  That's a good idea.
26  ____________________________  h  What a pity!
   i  No, it's okay, thank you.
Reading Comprehension, Part A

Read the headlines a–d and the texts 27–29. Choose the best headline for each text and mark the correct box on the answer sheet.

a  Cars and weather make life worse

b  High cost of living

c  Life is unhealthy without good English

d  Weather and homes are better in Spain

27

PEOPLE living in Washington D.C. can expect a summer of bad air warnings, officials say. Hotter temperatures together with dirt from increased road traffic will severely reduce the quality of the air in the city.

28

OXFORD is now the town with the most expensive houses in the State of Missouri. The typical home sale in the state is $111,092, says a new report.

29

SPANISH prisoners in Lincoln, Nebraska say they get poor medical service because of their language problems. They want more help with the language and need $1,000,000 to pay for their own teachers.
Reading Comprehension, Part B

You get the following text message from your friend Thomas:

Hi,
Thanks for asking me to stay a few days with you. I’d love to come, but I can’t come before Saturday. My train gets in at 17.35. Could you pick me up from the station?
Thanks.
Thomas

Read questions 30–32 and mark the correct box, yes (+) or no (−), on the answer sheet.

30 Thomas is coming before the weekend.
31 Thomas’s train arrives at half past five in the afternoon.
32 Thomas asks you to meet him at the station.
Reading Comprehension, Part C

Read the texts and answer the following questions. Mark the correct box, a or b, on the answer sheet.

33 You want to listen to music in the car. Which telephone number do you call?

Brief information for examiner(s)

On the following pages you will find the Task Sheets for all three parts of the oral test telc English A1.

Part A: About yourself

The Task Sheet for Part A should be put on the table or a (pin)board, so that all candidates can read the prompts easily.

For Part B and C please separate the perforated Task Cards. For Part B and C there are 12 Task Cards each. To conduct Part B and C you need 8 Task Cards for each part plus one Task Card for the examiner.

Part B: Asking for and giving information

First round: Put 6 Task Cards for Topic 1 face down on the table. Candidates choose only one Task Card each at a time and turn them over only when they are prompted by the examiner. The examiner chooses one of the remaining Task Cards and demonstrates the task.

Second round: 6 Task Cards for Topic 2 are put on the table face down. Each candidate chooses one Task Card at a time. Again they should not turn them over immediately, but only when they are asked to do so. The examiner does not demonstrate the task in the second round.

Part C: Making and replying to requests, suggestions and offers

All 12 Task Cards are put on the table face down. Candidates take two cards each.

There are two rounds to do Part C.

Please make sure candidates do not take the Task Cards with them when they leave the room. For Part B and C please use a different set of Task Cards for each group of candidates.

Information for examiners

Procedure for Conducting the Mock Test

Written Test

Formalities

Hand out the test booklet and the Answer Sheet S30.
Make sure the candidates

- fill in the personal information on the Answer Sheet S30. In the real examination this information is needed for the certificates, so it is in the candidates’ interest to write clearly and legibly.
- fill in the marks in the appropriate way.

Start the written examination.

The written examination begins with Language Elements. All the instructions are in the test booklet. Ten minutes are allowed for this test.
Listening Comprehension. This test has two parts. All the instructions are in the test booklet and are recorded on the audio CD. The audio CD should not be stopped during the test. All the necessary pauses are on the audio CD.
Situational Responses. As in Test 2, this part of the test is also divided into two sections.
The length of Part A and Part B (together approx. 15 minutes) depends on the length of the recording.
Reading Comprehension follows immediately after listening to the audio CD. This test has three parts. All instructions are in the test booklet. 30 minutes are allowed for this test.

The last part of the group written examination is Writing. The test Writing comprises two parts. The first part requires the candidates to fill in a form, the second one requires them to write a short message. All the instructions are in the test booklet. Fifteen minutes are allowed for the two parts of the section Writing.
At the end collect the Answer Sheet S30 from the candidates.

Oral Test

Before the oral test

Although telc English A1 can be conducted by just one examiner we highly recommend having a second examiner especially if there is a larger group of candidates. Generally the oral test will be for four candidates at a time. If, however, this is not possible because of e.g. an uneven number of candidates, the oral examination can be conducted with two or three, or even with a single candidate. One of the examiners takes on the role of interlocutor/first examiner. The first examiner gives the instructions, asks questions if necessary and marks the candidates’ performance. If there is a second examiner she or he only marks the performance and does not function as an interlocutor. The score sheet M10-Eng(A1) should be used for marking. There is no preparation time.
Introductory talk (less than a minute)
The first examiner/interlocutor welcomes the candidates and briefly explains the test.

Part A: About Yourself
Task Sheet 1 with the key words is placed on the table or put up on the wall or a board so that everyone can see the key words.

The interlocutor introduces Part A by giving an example, and then asking candidate A to start.

If the candidate produces less than five phrases, the interlocutor prompts by saying: “Anything else?”

After candidate A has briefly introduced herself/himself the interlocutor asks the same candidate to spell something (e.g. name, city, street etc.). After that the interlocutor asks for a number (e.g. phone number, mobile number, room number etc.).

After having done this section with candidate A the interlocutor follows the same procedure with the other candidates B, C or D.

The interlocutor ends Part A and smoothly goes on to Part B.
Part B: Asking for and giving information

The interlocutor introduces Part B by explaining the task and the topic.

The interlocutor then puts all Task Cards for Topic 1 face down on the table. He asks every candidate to take one Task Card each without turning it over. Then the interlocutor herself/himself takes one of the remaining Task Cards and demonstrates the task. In most cases candidates will react to the examiner’s impulse, thus showing that they have understood the task. Should none of the candidates react at all, the examiner will give the required response.

The interlocutor asks Candidate A to begin. The candidate asks a question with the help of her or his chosen Task Card. The next candidate answers the question. Thus each candidate asks one question and gives one answer.

Having completed the first round with Topic 1 the interlocutor introduces Topic 2. This time no example is given. 6 Task Cards are put on the table face down and the procedure is repeated as for Topic 1.

Please note: If any of the candidates cannot formulate a question the interlocutor takes over. Should one of the candidates ask a question outside the given topic, the interlocutor should intervene and remind the candidate of the topic.

After each candidate has asked two questions and has given two answers the interlocutor ends Part B and goes on to Part C of the test.

Part C: Making requests, suggestions, offers and replying to them

The interlocutor introduces Part C and explains the task.

The interlocutor then puts all Task Cards face down on the table. He asks every candidate to take 2 Task Cards each without turning them over. Then the interlocutor herself/himself takes one of the remaining Task Cards and demonstrates the task.
Each candidate formulates a request, a suggestion or an offer with the help of the Task Cards chosen and directs his impulse towards the candidate sitting next to her or him (Candidate A to Candidate B etc.). When approached the candidate replies and then formulates a request, a suggestion or an offer herself or himself. Once all candidates have made a request, a suggestion or an offer, the procedure is repeated.

The first examiner/interlocutor asks Candidate A to start.

Please start with your Task Card.

Well, this is the end of Part C and also the end of the whole test. Thank you very much indeed.

Points awarded

In the telc English A1 examination you can achieve a maximum of 100 points. The following table shows how many points are awarded in the various parts of the test.

Compare your answers with the Answer Key on page 30. To calculate your overall total, write the number of points in the right-hand column. Points are awarded as follows:

<table>

To pass the test you must achieve 60% of the possible maximum number of points, i.e. at least 60 points.
Marking Criteria

Writing

Writing, Part A:
The answers given by the candidate should be checked with the Answer Key (see page 30). Simple spelling errors are accepted as long as they do not impair communication. If e.g. a candidate writes “Sandy” or “Sunnday” instead of “Sunday” the answer is completely acceptable (A1). However, for tasks which require writing dates or numbers, only correct dates or numbers are accepted.

Writing, Part B:
Raters assess the candidates’ writing according to the following criteria:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Guiding points covered (each point)</th>
<th>points</th>
<th>Communicative Design</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2</td>
<td>1.5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1</td>
<td>0.75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The guiding point has been covered/processed and is appropriate in content and form despite errors which are normally accepted by a sympathetic reader.

Due to errors in content and form the guiding point has only been partially covered/processed.

The guiding point has not been covered/processed and/or is incomprehensible.

The communicative design is appropriate to the task.

The design is only partly appropriate (e.g. no greeting formula).

The design is not appropriate (no greeting and no closing formula).

A maximum of 7.5 points can be awarded for Writing Part B. Raters enter their marks on the Answer Sheet S30.

Examiners should be aware of the A1 descriptors given in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEF), e.g.:

Notes, Messages & Forms
Can write numbers and dates, own name, nationality, address, age, date of birth or arrival in the country, etc. such as on a hotel registration form.

(CEF, p. 84) *)

Overall Written Interaction
Can ask for or pass on personal details in written form.

(CEF, p. 89) *)

General Linguistic Range
Has a very basic range of simple expressions about personal details and needs of a concrete type.

(CEF, p. 110) *)

Processing Text
Can copy out single words and short texts presented in standard printed format.

(CEF, p. 96) *)

Grammatical Accuracy
Shows only limited control of a few simple grammatical structures and sentence patterns in a learnt repertoire.

(CEF, p. 114) *)

Orthographic Control
Can copy familiar words and short phrases e.g. simple signs or instructions, names of everyday objects, names of shops and set phrases used regularly. Can spell his/her address, nationality and other personal details.

(CEF, p. 114) *)

*) in: Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, teaching, assessment, CUP, Council of Europe 2001
Oral Test – Speaking

Marking (rating) is carried out during the test by the first examiner, or if arranged with two examiners, by each of the two examiners individually (interlocutor/first examiner and second examiner) according to the following criteria:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Score</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>full score</td>
<td>The performance is appropriate in content and form despite errors which are normally accepted by a sympathetic listener/interlocutor.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>half score</td>
<td>Due to errors in content and form the performance is only partially appropriate.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>zero score</td>
<td>The performance is not appropriate in content and form and the task has not been fulfilled.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Having done the rating individually for each candidate on the yellow score sheet M10, the examiners compare their rating once the candidates have left the examination room. The examiners come to an agreement and transfer the agreed marks to the Answer Sheet S30. The score sheet M10 should have the names of the candidate(s) at the appropriate place at the top of the paper. Where the oral test is conducted by one examiner only she or he should follow the same procedure.

With her or his signature on the score sheet M10 the examiner(s) confirm that they have conducted the oral test according to the prescribed organisational instructions and marking criteria for the test telc English A1.

It is strongly advised that the examiners should be constantly aware of the A1 descriptors of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEF), e.g.:

Overall Spoken Interaction
Can interact in a simple way but communication is totally dependent on repetition at a slower rate of speech, rephrasing and repair.
(CEF, p. 74 *)

Overall Oral Production
Can produce simple mainly isolated phrases about people and places.
(CEF, p. 58 *)

General Linguistic Range
Has a very basic range of simple expressions about personal details and needs of a concrete type.
(CEF, p. 110 *)

Grammatical Accuracy
Shows only limited control of a few simple grammatical structures and sentence patterns in a memorised repertoire.
(CEF, p. 114 *)

Spoken Fluency
Can manage very short, isolated, mainly pre-packaged utterances, with much pausing to search for expressions, to articulate less familiar words, and to repair communication.
(CEF, p. 129 *)

Coherence and Cohesion
Can link words or groups of words with very basic linear connectors like 'and' or 'then'.
(CEF, p. 125 *)

Phonological Control
Pronunciation of a very limited repertoire of learnt words and phrases can be understood with some effort by native speakers used to dealing with speakers of his/her language group.
(CEF, p. 117 *)

Examination Preparation

MOCK EXAMINATION 1
ENGLISH A1

The characteristic features of telc examinations are examination papers based on clearly formulated language tasks and standardised and objective marking criteria. These features apply to all English examinations covered by the telc programme. The mock examination presented here enables teachers and learners to simulate the precise conditions under which the English A1 examinations take place, both from the perspective of organising the test as well as from the point of view of the test materials. In this way, it is possible to fully prepare candidates for the examination. The mock examination can also be used for practice purposes and for general information.
